There are souvenir shops on the first level, while the second level offers an opportunity to enjoy a gastronomic menu at the smart Jules Verne restaurant, 125 metres above ground level. The museum was transferred to the old train station of Orsay and inaugurated in 1986. ## NOTRE DAME DE PARIS / ILE DE LA CITÉ

The Ile de la Cité corresponds to the heart of Paris; it was the capital of Lutecium, its Medieval ancestor. The Ile de la Cité was the cradle of Gaul's lutetium and the birthplace of the Roman River Trade, which, from the 1st century onwards, has made the Parisian boaters wealthy. In the 9th century, small churches were built on the square in front of the cathedral to protect relics from Norman pillages.

LATIN QUARTER / SAINT GERMAIN DES PRÈS

The Latin Quarter and the Saint Germain des Près area are filled with fascinating museums and overwhelming monuments: The Arabic World Institute, The Cluny Museum, The National Museum of Natural History of and the Jardin des plantes.
